| Date | November 16 th , 2020 |
| Content | “The Miniature World of Craftwork Competition for Inmates in 2020” was held at the auditorium in the afternoon of November 16 th . While the inmates had to work together to complete their projects, recycling materials were utilized well to build up and enlighten participants’ awareness of environmental protection. Led by the chief of Educating and Rehabilitation Department of Yilin Prison, the counselors and volunteer teachers were taking the role as judges. The contest appeared more meaningful as all pieces of work considering the elements of environmental protection, eye-appealing and simplicity. All judges marveled at the delicate craftsmanship demonstrated by the inmates with the craftworks in display. |
