Content	In order to cooperate with the epidemic control of the central government and the department, the supervisor held the "112 Spring Festival Telephone Promise" activity in the small auditorium. In order to cooperate with the epidemic control of the central government and the department, we specially separated the diocese and premises and carried them in batches. In addition to adopting plum blossom seats and partitions for small sessions, and The phones and the surrounding environment were cleaned before and after each stage of entry. There were a total of 12 stages in three consecutive days, and 3,434 detainees in the whole prison were provided with free calls. The moment the hostesses talk on the phone during the "Festivals", care and longing immediately appear on their faces. This event also thanks to Chunghwa Telecom Yilan Operations Office for its long-term sponsorship, helping the hosts to narrow the distance between relatives .

Content	"Lion's head and fish tail stand in front, wealth and auspiciousness to celebrate the New Year", the "Straw Installation Art Competition" organized by our supervisor has entered its fourth year, inheriting past experience and improving weaving techniques. This year's works are full of festive atmosphere of the New Year. It also expresses the hope and expectation of gradually moving towards normal life in the post-epidemic era. The participating workshops all spared no effort to display exquisite craftsmanship. 21 exquisite works lined up to show the vitality and creativity of the hosts. In addition to the changeable and distinctive weaving methods, some characteristic works also added interactive and interesting crafting methods. Impressed the jury.
