

I-Lan Prison, Agency of Corrections, Ministry of Justice. Record of Educational Event 2nd

| | |
|----------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Event | The Life Education From Tzu Chi Charitable Foundation in 2025 |
| Date | 10 th Mar. |
| Content | For promoting inmates' thoughts of giving up drugs and going further their life education. I-Lan Prison held 「The Life Education From Tzu Chi Charitable Foundation in 2025」 at the auditorium and the assembly hall on 10 th Mar. We invited Mr. Chun to graced I-Lan Prison , and share his experience about how he transformed his life with the inmates of 1 st 、13 rd 、14 th and 2 nd female workshops by the status of rehabilitated person. He had been controlled by drugs and come into prison three times. He creates a successful himself by kindness and belief. Inmates can change their life by the sharing. They took a Performance of dactylology and send breads with best wishes in the end. |

The secretary present a speech

Spectacular speech

Performance of dactylology

To sand breads with best wishes