Event Volleyball Competition for Inmates

Date August 6-8, 2025

Content

To encourage healthy recreation and physical fitness among inmates, Yilan Prison hosted the 2025 Inmate Volleyball Tournament on August 6th, 7th, and 8th. The preliminary rounds were held within each correctional area, with top-performing male inmates from different work units selected to compete in the finals. The tournament followed a best-of-three format.

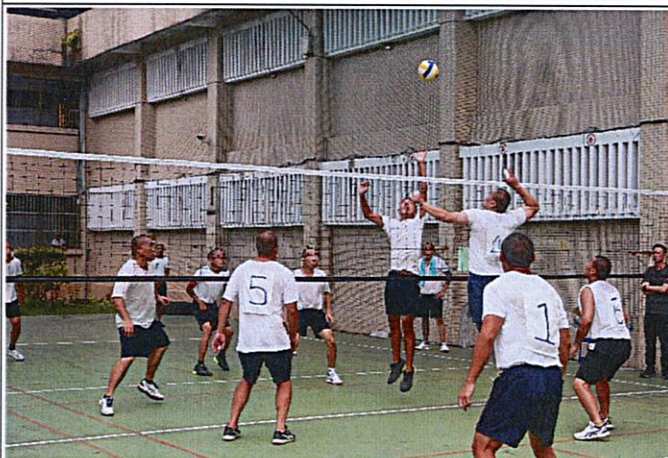

In the exciting and intense matches, the inmates gave their best—jumping to block, diving to save, and showing great coordination and teamwork. Every point scored was the result of seamless collaboration among teammates, sparking enthusiastic applause and cheers from the audience. The event concluded successfully amid an atmosphere of excitement and spirited competition.
