Event	Nine-grid pitching competition for inmates
Date	September 10, 2025
Content	To promote wholesome recreational activities for inmates, cultivate their mental and physical well-being, and raise awareness of fraud prevention through the use of “Chai Quotes”, Yilan Prison held the “2025 Inmate Nine-grid pitching Competition” on the 10th of this month. The competition followed an individual format, where each participant threw 15 balls from a designated position. Hitting any panel within the tic-tac-toe grid earned 1 point per hit. The top three participants with the highest total scores were declared the winners. The competition was intense and exciting, with inmates showing great effort and skill. It created a joyful atmosphere while boosting awareness of fraud and scams. The event ended successfully.
