Event	Parent-Child Picture Book Design Competition Evaluation
Date	October 13,2025
	To strengthen the bond between inmates and their families, Yilan Prison organized the 2025 Parent-Child Picture Book Design Contest in October. Centered on the core values of family, companionship, affection, and restoration, the competition encouraged creativity and originality in artistic expression.
Content	On October 13, the entries were evaluated by department supervisors and volunteer instructors with expertise in fine arts. A total of 18 works were submitted, each demonstrating the participants' artistic talent and imaginative design. Through the skillful use of various painting techniques, the inmates showcased aesthetically refined and inspiring creations that beautifully reflected both creativity and moral insight.
