Event	"Sunshine Women's Choir" Film Screening, Sharing Session, and Visit Activity
Date	February 09, 2026
Content	To enhance the effectiveness of inmate rehabilitation and counseling, Yilan Prison held a screening of the film "Sunshine Women's Choir" in the auditorium on February 9. The film's director Lin Hsiao-chien, screenwriter Lu An-hsien, and lead actress Amber An (An Xin-ya) attended the event and shared the cinematic experience with inmates and guests. A total of 568 inmates from the women's prison, the Juvenile Observation Center, and Workshops 15 and 16 of the men's prison participated. During the screening, the audience watched attentively, responding with laughter and tears as the story unfolded. In the post-screening session, the director and screenwriter interacted warmly with the audience and shared their creative inspirations. Amber An also surprised the audience by leading a dance to the film's performance song "Practice Kung Fu," bringing lively applause and laughter to the venue. The guests also visited the institution's lantern-making class, scarecrow installation art display, and the women's prison baking workshop, expressing admiration for the inmates' creative works. The event concluded with a commemorative group photo at Yilan Prison's main entrance, marking a meaningful and positive exchange.
