Event	Anti-Fraud Legal Education Program
Date	March 09、11, 2026
Content	To promote proper concepts of consumer finance, money management, and debt management, Yilan Prison held an “Anti-Fraud Legal Education Course” in the auditorium on the 9th of this month. Prosecutor Chen Yilong from the Yilan District Prosecutors’ Office was specially invited to lead the session, using real cases to explain common fraud schemes, reminding participants to stay alert and avoid being deceived, and enhancing inmates’ ability to recognize fraud and understand relevant financial laws. At the same time, Lawyer Liu Zongting, Executive Secretary of the Yilan Branch of the Legal Aid Foundation, introduced legal aid services, helping inmates understand how to make use of the branch’s resources to protect their rights. The course also included a quiz with prizes, creating an interactive and lively atmosphere that reinforced fraud awareness, improved anti-fraud skills, and helped prevent inmates from falling into scams again. Additionally, to strengthen staff awareness of fraud prevention, the course was also open to employees without disrupting operations, allowing them to attend and improve their anti-fraud knowledge together. Through legal education and practical guidance, the program continues to foster correct legal concepts, enhance fraud recognition skills, and safeguard personal rights.
